

Please allow no exceptions to the Indiana no-call list rules. The nuisance phone calls have decreased substantially since it went into effect. I should be the one who initiates contact with a business I have a relationship with, not the business. If you weaken these rules, I will abandon my "land-line" and rely solely on my cellular phone.